JULY MARKS ANTI-BOREDOM MONTH!

Until someone comes up with an idea that sparks the imagination and ignites a level of curiosity that gets someone up and moving, boredom threatens! Since this month is Anti-Boredom Month, we thought it appropriate to send out a list of titles that just may eliminate that pervasive feeling of nothingness and replace it with a variety of new pursuits. Most of all, we hope you'll try some of these suggestions to the degree that you incorporate them into your lives for satisfying hobbies or the acquisition of new and valuable skills. Come to the Post Library today and celebrate Anti-Boredom Month in a truly meaningful way:

CELEBRATE FAMILY FUN MONTH in AUGUST

August is always the "let's get everything in" month before we turn our attention to fall schedules and, since it's officially "Family Fun Month," why not take the time to plan leisure time that you can enjoy as a family? The Post Library has a wide variety of titles and suggestions that'll help you with day trips, Bed and Breakfast weekends nearby, or information about all those places you still haven't been to but have wanted to see for a long time. Have fun and enjoy!

$45.00 for adults and $30.00 for children 3-11

Includes transportation, Aquarium ticket and trip escort

Bus departs 8:00am and returns 9:00pm

Baltimore's Inner Harbor serves as the city's centerpiece. A successful example of urban revitalization, what was once a decaying industrial waterfront has been transformed into a thriving area offering many attractions. More than 200 eateries and shops fill the two glass-enclosed pavilions of Harbor Place. Animals are what we love, so take a trip to the nations Aquarium and keep in mind that this is just the tip of the iceberg. Over 10,000 animals are on display at the Aquarium. DON'T FORGET TO BRING YOUR CAMERA!!!!!!
